

Tip #3 Keeping the COPM Problems Manageable

Identifying problems for the COPM that are not too narrow or broad (e.g. doing up buttons or getting a job).

Asking about other parts to broaden scope (e.g. dressing tops and bottoms).

Asking about occupations within the category to narrow scope (e.g. applying for work or work skills needed).